Dear Mr. Wall:

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, has asked me to thank you for your letter of 31 December concerning your desire to produce a filmed series for television by utilizing the files of the Agency.

It is regretted that we are unable to grant your requests to utilize our files and to have a qualified member of our organization serve as a technical adviser in this project.

Your courtesy in writing to us is indeed appreciated.

Sincerely,

Signed

Mr. Allan Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

This letter is being written on the suggestion of the [REDACTED]

Specifically we are interested in producing a filmed series for television, utilizing the files of the Central Intelligence Agency, that have dramatic merit and reflect favorably upon your agency and our government.

In addition we would be interested in securing either your services, or the services of a qualified member of your staff, as technical advisor. This will insure authenticity and permit us to present the very valuable public contributions of your service to millions who are presently unfamiliar with them.

We understand that it is necessary to obtain clearance from you and should appreciate having the opportunity of visiting you in Washington, at your convenience to discuss matters in further detail.

You may be assured that our contemplated series would add immeasurably to the prestige of the Central Intelligence Agency.

With best wishes,

Very truly yours,
